

THE NEW YORK STORE

(ESTABLISHED 1858)

A Card to the ladies.

Our Opening of Hamburg Embroideries will be of interest to every lady. Anticipating the great demand which is sure to be this season, we placed our orders early, and the goods are now on sale. The styles are all new, and we think much superior to those of former seasons. Ladies will please notice that we have styles in different widths to match, and also to match All Over Embroidery. In this connection we ask that you take particular notice of our stock of "King's Trimmings," all new this season. These trimmings are very handsome and durable, and very much used for trimming White Goods and Underclothing. We invite an inspection of our "Embroideries" and "King's Trimmings," the price of which will be found marked in plain figures on each piece.

Very Respectfully,

E. G. Morris, Secretary of the Grocers' Exchange, and editor of the Live Stock Review and Horse Current, is missing from the city, and his friends are somewhat alarmed.

The Volcan Iron Works, an Illinois corporation, has instituted suit in the Federal Court against George Pettig, of Peru, this

The faculties of Smith, Vassar and Wellesley Colleges have voted to admit pupils from the Girls' Classical School of this city without examination. A high compliment to the reputation of the school.

BASE BALL.

The New Western League—Members of the Indianapolis Club for the Season of 1885.

The following is a complete list of the clubs that will be represented at the meeting of the new Western League at the Grand Hotel on Wednesday next: Indianapolis, Cleveland, Toledo, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Kansas City, Terre Haute and Dayton. Manager Watkins, of the home team, is very sanguine over the prospects of the new League, and says that Indianapolis has a good show to win the championship, for the nine that it will put in the field will be a very strong one. The following is a list of the players and their respective positions:

McKeon, Casey and Miller, pitchers; Keenan, Robinson and McGuire, catchers; McInery, first base; Collins, second base; Phillips, short stop; Donnelly, third base; Thompson, center field; Moriarty, left field; Poreman, right field, and Crane, extra. McGuire, it will be remembered, worked behind the bat last year with Toledo, while Poreman played right field with the same club. Both of them are splendid ball players, and will strengthen the home team wonderfully. McInery and Thompson last year played with Evansville, and are considered good ones. All of the players will report here on March 15, when the club will leave for the South, playing in Macon, Augusta and Atlanta, Ga., and Chattanooga and Nashville, Tenn., on one game in Louisville. They will return early in April and meet the last named club on the Seventh Street Park. Managers Watkins, of Indianapolis, and Hart, of Louisville, have arranged a series of twelve games for the clubs to play a series of twelve games for the championship of the two cities, and the former is confident that his nine will win. The regular championship season opens May 1.

A number of umpires will be appointed at the meeting on Wednesday, and it is generally understood that John Brennan, of this city, will be one of the lucky ones.

The Rink.

The Wigwam Rink is in the field with the announcement of a grand masquerade, the first of the kind ever given in this city, which will take place next Friday evening, February 13, and, if indications can be relied upon, gives promise of being a very successful affair. The management offer a list of elegant prizes for the various costumes, the intrinsic value of which is great enough to make a lively contest in estimating. Skating will continue until 12 o'clock, the masks being removed at 10:30. No one will be allowed upon the floor without mask until time for removal of masks. It is only necessary to call the attention of the patrons of the rink to the fancy dress carnivals that have been given this season at this popular resort to warrant the promise of a grand affair in this masquerade than even they were. The management never permit failure in their efforts to cater to amusement lovers.

There was a large attendance at the College Avenue Rink last night, notwithstanding the attraction of the previous evening. The managers of this rink announce for next Tuesday night a fine apron party, the first ever given in this city, and for Friday night a grand valentine party.

The Southside Free Kindergarten. The Southside Free Kindergarten Society met at Mrs. Roberts' 345 North Pennsylvania street, Tuesday, February 3, at 3 o'clock. The Treasurer's report showed that the financial affairs of the association are improving, the liberal response to calls for contributions being very gratifying. Mrs. Fleming, in her monthly report for December stated that the school closed on December 24 for a winter vacation, the room being large and not comfortable when cold weather. The Christmas festival was a success, and even at this late date the thanks of the association were due Mrs. James Hess, who sent twenty dolls beautifully dressed in, and the little pocket of each doll was a new ten cent piece. The nine suits of cotton flannel under clothing and nine pairs of mittens from Mrs. Phil Carleton, a memorial to her dear son whose heart was in this beautiful charity, and his desire was to keep the little children warm; to Charley Mayer, the children's good fairy, for a big basket of toys, and to others who contributed and helped to make the hearts of the children glad. The vote of thanks was very promptly given by the association. School will commence March 1.

Reportorial Change.

The local force of the Times, consisting of Joseph E. Cobb, city editor; Adolph Macneilen and C. C. Heckman, reporters, and editorial writer, W. H. Smith, yesterday retired from that paper and are succeeded by an entirely new force. Mr. Scott O. Bone, for some time past connected with the News, assumed the position of city editor, with George M. Payne and Clarence Goodwin, as reporters. Oliver T. Morton will be chief editorial writer. Mr. Bone is succeeded on the News by Mr. O. R. Johnson, for many years connected with the Sentinel. The gentlemen who retire from the Times, as well as those who succeed to the several positions, and likewise Mr. Bone's successor on the News, are well known to the people of Indianapolis, and in their several fields will have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Almost Suffocated.

Charles Henderson, with his brother and sister, had a narrow escape from death, by suffocation, Friday night. They were visiting friends at 168 East St. Joseph street, and closed the damper of the base burner so as to force all the gas from the stove into the house, instead of allowing it to escape through the flue. One of the boys arose at 3 o'clock yesterday morning almost suffocated, and by hard work managed to give the alarm. All those in the house were seriously prostrated, and it was necessary to call in medical aid. Another hour would have proved fatal to one or more of the inmates. A greater danger was run in the danger of explosion, which had it occurred after the gas escaped for several hours, would have torn the house to pieces, and proved fatal to all the inmates.

Sergeant Reed Resigns.

Sergeant John Reed, of the Metropolitan police force, tendered his resignation yesterday. He will run the merchant boat formerly piloted by "Uncle Billy Williams." There are a large number of candidates among the Republican members of the force for Mr. Reed's position, and it was rumored last night that Patrolman Michael Rafferty would be the lucky man. Among the candidates are Patrolmen Low, Barlow, Dawson, Fickel, Cleary, McMullen, Schaffer and Richards.
